Whitney House Tool Shop

I am pleased to announce the launching of my e-commerce website @ <https://whitneyhousetoolshop.net> Now I will be able to continue to sell my tools to you with NO eBay fees, therefore offering you better prices than ever before.

As some of you might already know, I have been in the antique business since the 1980's. I have been selling tools on ebay.com/str/whitneyhouseantiques since 2012 and I currently have over 1225+ tools listed with 100% positive feedback. I will be selling my tools on both venues for a while until I transition completely off eBay.

All the tools I offer are meticulously cleaned to maintain their integrity and patina. Once cleaned, they are carefully researched, identified, photographed and listed.

Please visit my new website, if you don't see what your are looking for there is a link to my eBay store www.ebay.com/str/whitneyhouseantiques & also my Instagram account @whitneyhousetoolshop or visit my Oak Ridge shop that has over 3,000 tools ready to go...Call for an appointment 7 days a week @ 973-879-1101.

Happy Tooling
